REGNAVANT ISSUANCE GROUP

THE TERM OF ACQUISITION

Sixty Days

In full. On conveyance.

I · THE SETTLEMENT

Settled in full within sixty days of executed terms.
No deposit. No installments. No stock. No notes. No earnout.
Escrow protects what a seller keeps back. Nothing here is kept back.

II · THE CLEARANCE

Most conveyances sit beneath the federal threshold and wait for no one.
Where one does not, the government’s wait is thirty days.
The filing is drawn before terms are signed, so it begins the hour they are.
A foreign acquirer is cleared before terms, never inside them.

III · PRACTICAL COMPLETION

The estate conveys proven, complete, protected, and prepared for transfer.
The works were finished before the invitation was written.
Vacant possession — no staff, no contracts, no history to clear.
The whole of it was spent on this side of the table.

Sixty days is completion.
Not construction.
